

FUHSD Reopening Committee

Fremont Union High School District

April 8, 2021

Committee Purpose

- To listen and provide input into the District's plans for reopening – both for April 19 and for next school year, August 2021
- To communicate with and gather input from others, if possible, in order to broaden the scope of information that can guide us

Today's Agenda

- Upcoming meetings and planning for Fall 2021
- Quick updates on school campus reopening
- Review some of the questions from previous meeting and share steps taken to address concerns raised
- Share out from Principals Bryan Emmert, Greg Giglio and Ben Clausnitzer on how sites are approaching student and staff orientation, setting up classrooms and campus spaces in accordance with safety guidelines and communicating with families about returning to campus
- Small group discussion
- Small group share out
- Closing

Quick updates on returning for in-person instruction on April 19

- FUHSD has decided to allow students to have the option of two days or four days of in-person learning when we return on April 19
- Students that will be returning to campus will receive their individual schedules today with their assigned learning group through Infinite Campus Messenger
 - Attached will be the following:
 - Updated bell schedules by learning group
 - FUHSD Guide to Bringing Back Students
 - FUHSD Health and Safety Agreements
 - Student Information regarding Qualtrics Screening Tool
 - Food Service Updates
- Freshmen Orientation and other welcome activities at each campus are occurring this week
